ART EXHIBITION & LOAN AGREEMENT

TERMS & CONDITIONS GOVERNING LOAN AGREEMENT

1. The conditions set forth on this form apply to all objects lent to the University and cannot be altered, changed, waived or otherwise amended except as agreed upon in writing.
2. The University will exercise the same care with respect to loans as it does in the safekeeping of comparable works owned by the University.
3. If at the request of the Lender, without prior written agreement, the object is to be returned to any address other than that which it was collected, the Lender shall pay any additional cost necessitated by such a change, if so directed by the University.
4. Loans of works of art are governed by Section 1899, et. Seq., of the California Civil Code. This law makes persons who deposit property with a museum responsible for informing the museum promptly in writing of any change in their address or change in ownership of the property. If the museum is unable to contact a Lender directly by mail, the law provides that the museum will be deemed to have given notice under the law if it publishes a proper notice in a newspaper. After making all reasonable efforts and through no fault of its own, the museum shall be unable to return the work(s) within sixty days after such notice, then the Museum shall have the absolute right to place the work(s) in storage to charge regular storage fees and the cost in insurance thereof, and to have and enforce a lien for such fees and cost. If after three years, the works have not been reclaimed, the work(s) shall be deemed an unrestricted gift to the University or may be disposed of by the University.
5. Unless otherwise indicated, the cost of transportation and packing will be borne by the University. The method of shipment shall be agreed upon by both parties. The Lender certifies that the property is in such condition as to withstand the ordinary strains of packing, transportation, and handling. The Lender shall assure the property is adequately and securely packed for the type of shipment agreed upon, including transmitting to the University any special instructions for unpacking and repacking.
6. University will insure the items in the Exhibition while they are in the University's care, custody or control and in transit at the close of the Exhibition according to the terms and conditions of its Fine Arts insurance policy. The Lender will provide University with an itemized schedule of all items in the Exhibition and their declared value. A certificate of insurance will be sent upon request. Under University's Fine Arts Insurance policy items are insured for their insurance replacement value. In the event of a loss it will be the Lender's responsibility to establish to the satisfaction of the Fine Arts Insurance underwriter that the declared value is the insurance replacement value for the items that comprise the Exhibition. This can be done with appraisals, with documentation that provides proof of sale of similar items, and in other ways acceptable to the underwriter. In the case of long-term loans, it is the responsibility of the Lender to update insurance valuations. In no event will University be liable to Lender for damages in excess of the amount of any insurance recovery from the University's Fine Arts Insurance policy, nor for any loss or damage due to causes excluded from coverage under the Fine Arts Insurance policy.
7. If preferred, the Lender may continue its own insurance for the period of the loan. However, the University will not accept responsibility for any errors or deficiencies in information furnished to the Lender's insurers or for any lapses in coverage. Prior to the shipment of the work, the University must be supplied with a Certificate of Insurance and an Additional Insured Endorsement naming The Regents of the University of California as an additional insured. It is understood that any Lender insuring his/her own loan automatically waives right of subrogation unless information to the contrary is received in writing before the loan leaves the possession of the Lender.
8. Unless the University is notified in writing to the contrary, it is understood that objects lent to it may be photographed by the general public.
9. Any object lent to the University for Exhibition shall remain in its possession, or the possession of other Borrowers participating in the Exhibition for which it has been borrowed, for the time specified on the face of this form. If the legal ownership of an object changes while the object is held by the University, the new owner will be required to establish his/her legal right to the object in a manner satisfactory to the University. It is incumbent upon the Lender to notify the University of any change of address.
10. The University has sole discretion as to whether, for how long, and in what manner objects loaned to it shall be exhibited. The University also has the right to determine which written and interpretive materials will accompany the Exhibition.
11. In the event of any conflict between this agreement and any writings, forms, or documents of the Lender, the terms of this agreement shall be controlling.

The aforesaid conditions shall apply to all objects sent to the University on loan and cannot be altered, changed, waived or otherwise affected except by written agreement by both parties. In signing this agreement, the undersigned warrants, represents, and certifies that he/she is the legal owner or authorized agent of the legal owner of the property described on this form.
